

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1859.

Continued from Fifth Page.

throughout the country. A letter from Belgrade of the 12th states that on that day the people were able to resume the operation of the construction by workmen from Sem in a mining-place for the Austrian steamer on the banks of the Danube. The breath of the Pasha had been, and endeavored to make the people understand that the Turkish territory extended from the Sava to the banks of the river, but the people would not listen to him. During the night, 300 men having arrived to reinforce the garrison of the fortress, this National Guard expressed their intention to take up arms on the following day. Osman Pasha protested against the latter proceeding.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

The Times (N. Y.) quotes the following: The French are much influenced by the actions of Italy and France. It is reported that M. Bonaparte has proposed from Paris an extraordinary Mission to the German Confederation, and, according to some, to no distant time, to propose a general peace conference to be held at Vienna.

The news of the 30th is the following:

The terms of the 30th are that there will be no distribution of the Ministry of the interior. The exchanges show the meeting at Amsterdam, led to new宿ries of the possibility of some peace arrangements being consummated through French agency. There was also a small withdrawal of gold from the Bank of France.

The new French loan is quoted in Paris as follows:

The subscription of 100 millions, which it was announced will be granted in Paris, will be made in two parts.

The first part is expected to be received in the month of June.

The second part is expected to be received in July.

The terms of the 30th are the following:

The terms of the 30th are